AND FOOD MUST NEVER BE WASTED.

D: Nice to meet you, Oda Sensei. I love the manga you draw, called "NEP ECE."

O: Aaagh! It's been done to me!! I just love the kind of word mistakes that young girls and boys make. But I understand. How could you read such strange letters? The "O" and the "I" in the title logo don't look like letters, do they? Sorry about the funny design. What it really says is "ONE PIECE." You pronounce it "wan peesu." If you have time, learn it.

D: The word "Möwe" is printed on Morgan's chin, but what does that mean?

O: It's German. It means "Seagull" and is pronounced, "mee-be." After all, he's a seaman.

D: About Zolo's three sword style…I would think you wouldn't be able to talk with a sword in your mouth. By any chance…is he a ventriloquist?

O: Fine spirit.

D: You don't use Zipatone much. Is there some reason?

O: Once you start pasting tone, there's no end. It takes time, and it's a ~~pain in the~~…
My policy is that it's better to go with black and white than to just partially use tones.
Yeah, it's my policy.
